

Video Worksheet: The Oil Curse

1. The tropical rainforest where oil might be found is in ( Brazil / Ecuador / Angola / Uruguay ).
2. The offshore oil platforms in Africa that are shown in the video are located in ( Cameroon / Guinea Bissau / Eritrea / Angola ).
3. Texaco first arrived in the South American country from #1 in this year: ( 1949 / 1969 / 1979 / 1989 ) in order to explore for oil.
4. Rosa Matango is a plaintiff in the case against Texaco. She says that Texaco's operations have polluted her land and made her ( sick / destitute / homeless / ashamed).
5. Texaco ceased all operations in the country from #1 in ( 1992 / 1993 / 1994 / 1995 ).
6. By 2015, a quarter (25%) of America's oil will come from ( Alaska / Antarctica / South America / Africa ).
7. Chevron-Texaco recently paid ( 3 million / 13 million / 30 million / 300 million ) dollars to pay for the right to exploit one bloc of offshore oil territory.
8. Rafael Marx is a journalist who was sent to jail for an article called, "The Lipstick of Dictatorship." It was critical of Eduardo dos Santos, Angola's ( oil minister / prime minister / richest man / president ).
9. The protest in Luanda was about an audit of Angola's oil revenues carried out by the International Monetary Fund. The audit showed that $4.2 billion ( was spent on Coca-Cola / simply vanished into thin air / was spent on Mercedes-Benz automobiles / was given to poor people ).
10. The reason why the CARE workers travel the roads in armored "Casper" vehicles is because of ( enemy fire / roadside robbers / car jacking / the presence of unexploded mines ).
11. HALO is a charity that clears _____ (what things?) from former battlefields so that civilians don't get hurt.